

Every state should have "do not call" laws as stringent as NJ's - we have the absolute right to free and peaceful dinner times, etc and these solicitors should have no right to call us unless we authorize it. Spam abuse isn't OK in emails - why is it OK by phone? Please maintain the Do Not Call Registry as is in NJ.